

The Vision of the Great Conflict

A vision of the enemy's last-day army, a force whose greatest power of destruction is released when it uses Christians to attack one another. This is the story of that war, the climb to victory, and the army that God is raising up.

The Hordes of Hell Are Marching

I saw a demonic army, so large it stretched beyond sight, separated into divisions under the command of the Accuser of the Brethren himself.

- The foremost divisions marched under the banners of Pride, Self-Righteousness, Respectability, Selfish Ambition, Unrighteous Judgment, and Jealousy.

An Unholy Alliance

The most shocking part of the vision was that this horde was not riding on horses, but primarily on Christians.

These believers professed Christian truths, but lived in agreement with the ass. The demons' power was rooted in deception, making these Christians believe they were being used by God.

They mistook the slime of Pride and Selfish Ambition for the anointing of the Holy Spirit.

The Prisoners of Fear

- Trailing the army was a multitude of Christian prisoners, wounded and guarded by small demons of Fear.
- They still possessed their swords and shields, but did not use them. They were paralyzed by fear.
- Vultures of Depression swarmed overhead, vomiting Condemnation upon them. The prisoners mistook this for the truth of God, and so attacked any of their own who stumbled and fell.

The Army of the Lord

The army of the Lord was composed of thousands, but they were still greatly outnumbered. It seemed a great Christian Civil War was about to begin.

State of the Army:

- Only a few were fully dressed in armor.
- Many were already wounded.
- The great majority were women and children.

A Battle of Self-Destruction

When the enemy arrows began to fall, everyone without full armor was wounded.
Those hit with Slander began to slander their brethren.

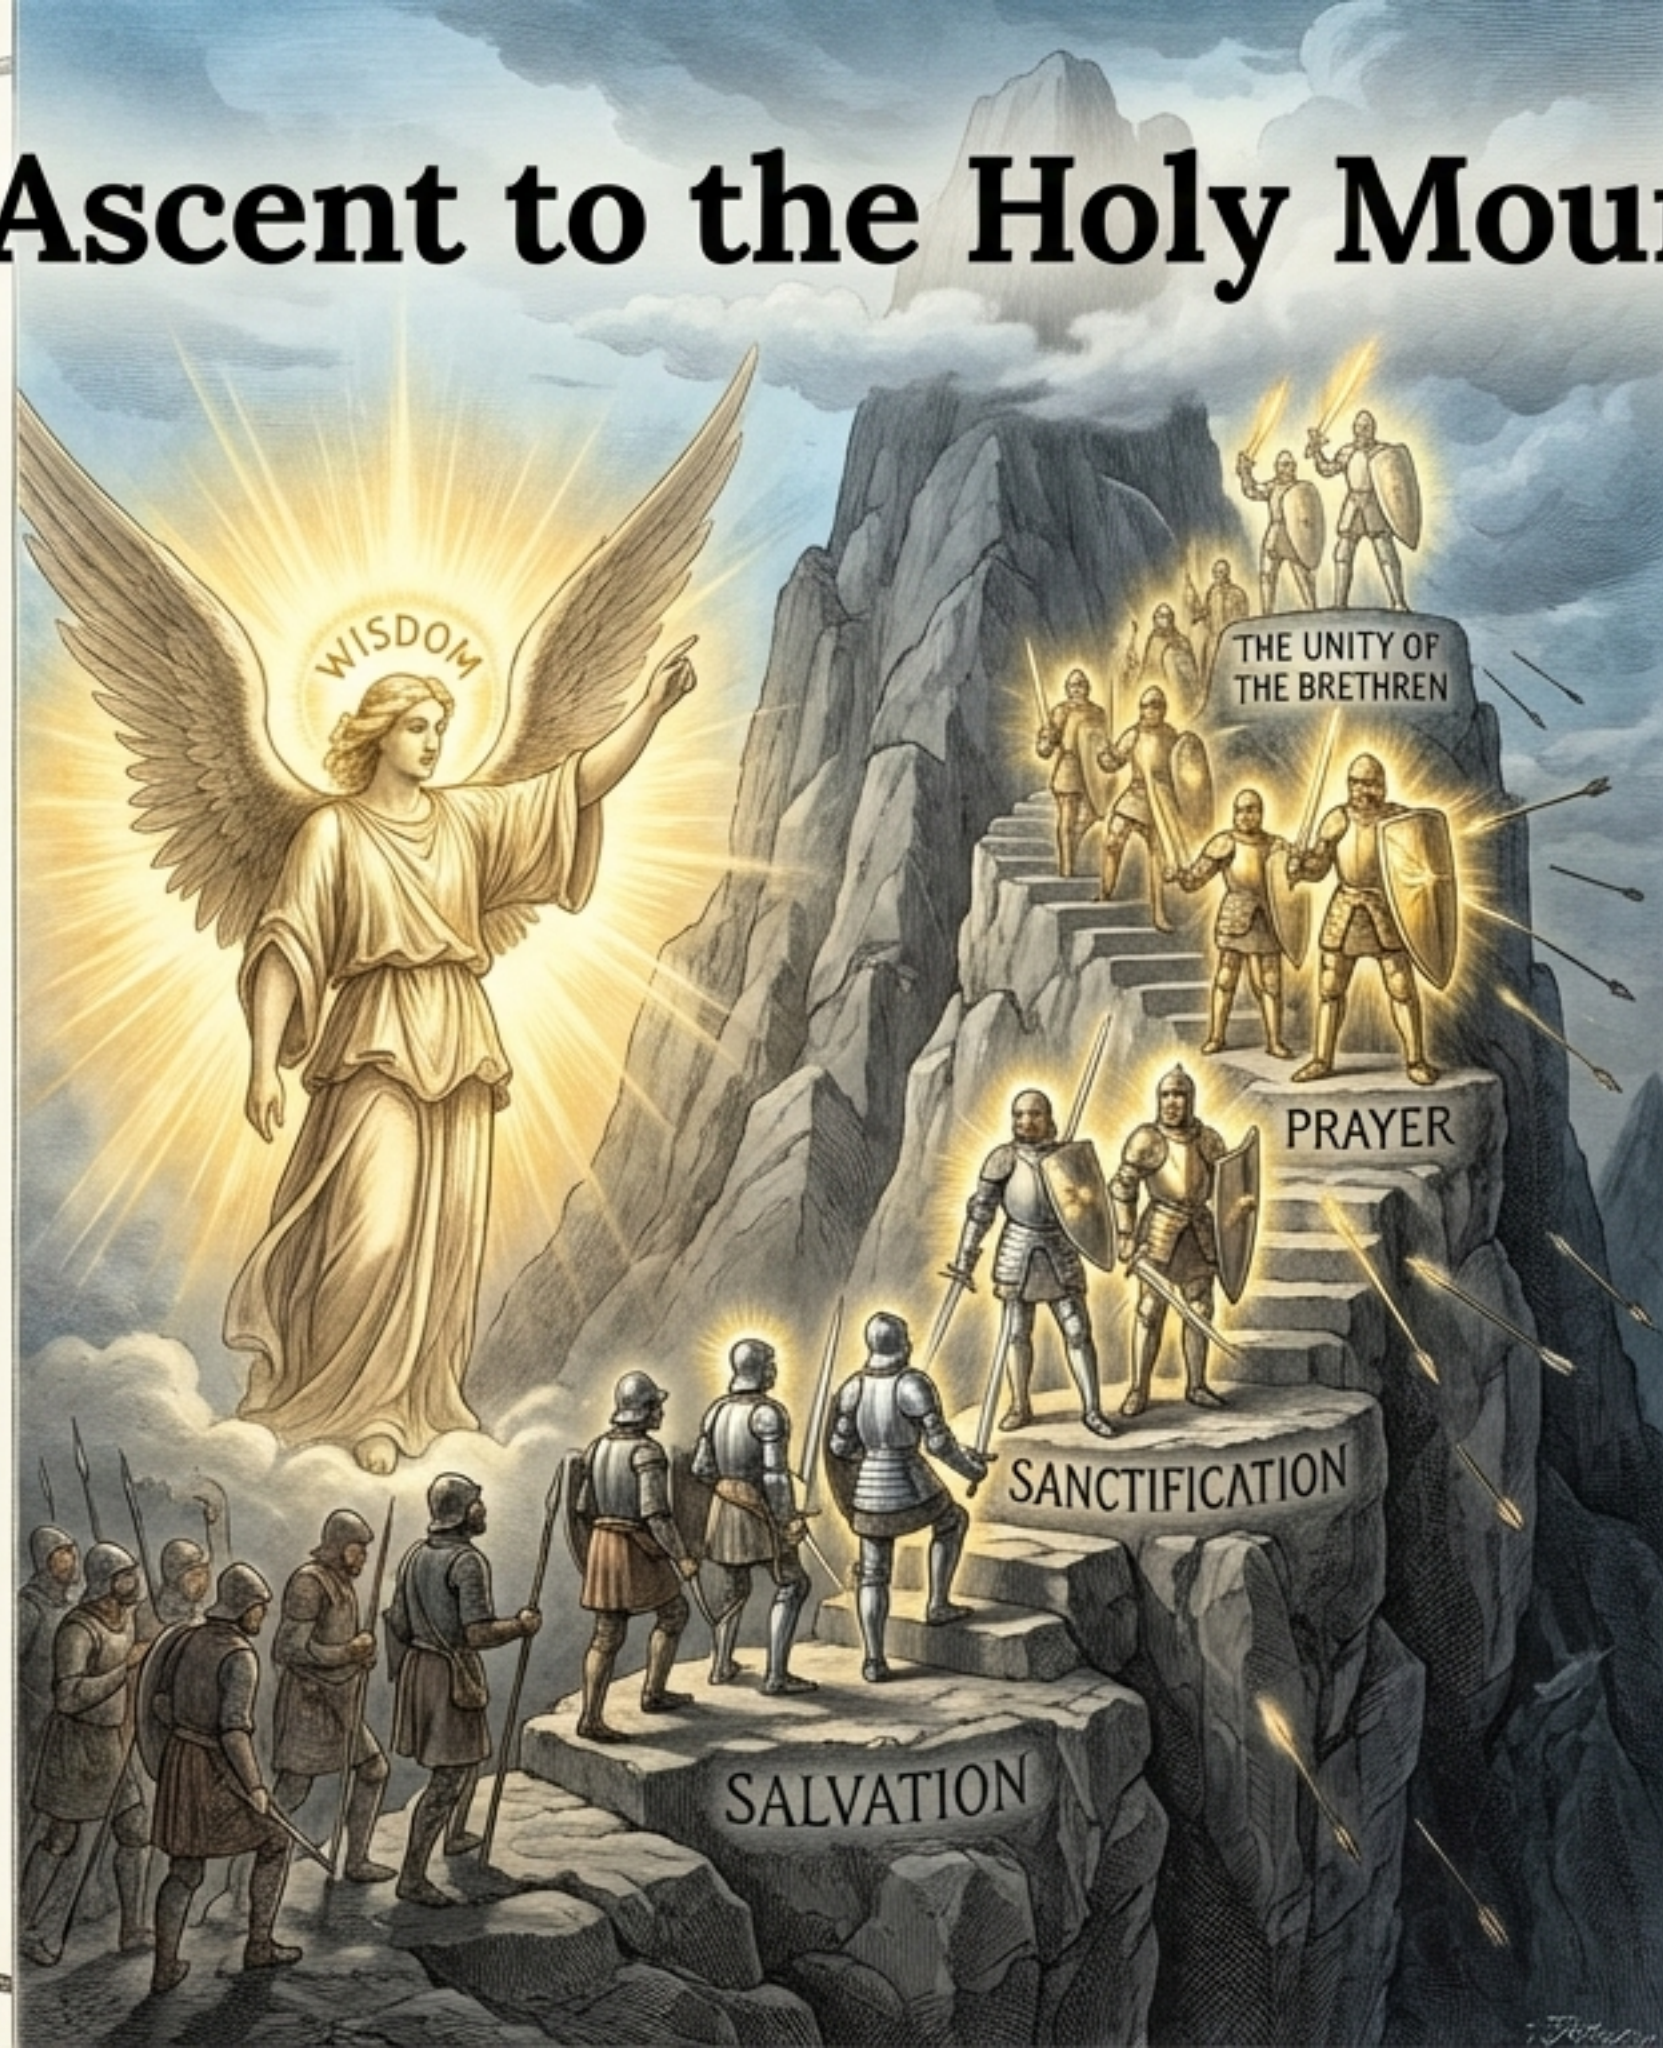

Those hit with Gossip began to gossip.

A tragic mistake was made: some began picking up the enemy's arrows of Accusation and shooting them back.

These arrows always missed the demons and struck the Christians they rode, causing demons of Bitterness and Rage to perch upon them, transforming them into images of evil.

The Ascent to the Holy Mountain

Another great angel named Wisdom appeared and directed us to fight from the mountain behind us.

When we reached the level “The Unity of the Brethren,” none of the enemy’s arrows could reach us at all.

Each level was named for a biblical truth.

The higher we climbed, the larger our shields and swords grew, and fewer of the enemy arrows could reach our positions.

The Sword is an Anchor

The Lord's voice came: "You have used the wisdom that will enable you to keep climbing. Many have fallen because they did not use their swords properly to anchor themselves."

"My whole life had been training for this hour. I was prepared to the degree that I had listened to the Lord. Every trial had been a preparation."

Above the Battle at “Galatians Two Twenty”

When we reached the level called “Galatians Two Twenty,” we were above the altitude the vultures could withstand. I felt a peace like I had never felt before.

Here we caught up to Faith, Hope, and Love. They began repairing and shining our armor. Love then said, “Those who reach this level are entrusted with the powers of the age to come. I still must teach you how to use them.”

At the top, we entered a garden—the most beautiful place I had ever seen. In the middle was the Tree of Life. An angel called out: “Those who make it to this level know the Father’s love and can eat of the tree.” “With every bite, I loved everything and everyone more. Then my enemies started coming to mind, and I loved them too. The Lord’s voice said, ‘This is now your daily bread.’”

The Eagles Are Released

- I saw that the Tree of Life was filled with pure white eagles. “These eagles eat snakes,” an angel said.
- We had seen that the deceived Christians below were bound by serpents of Shame, which arrows of Truth could not harm.
- I cried, “Go! Devour the shame that has bound our brothers.” They descended, and I could hear the sounds of terror from the enemy camp.

The King and His Commission

The Lord Jesus Himself appeared in our midst. He greeted each one of us and said: “The enemy’s most powerful army has now been put to flight, but not destroyed.”

The New Mandate:

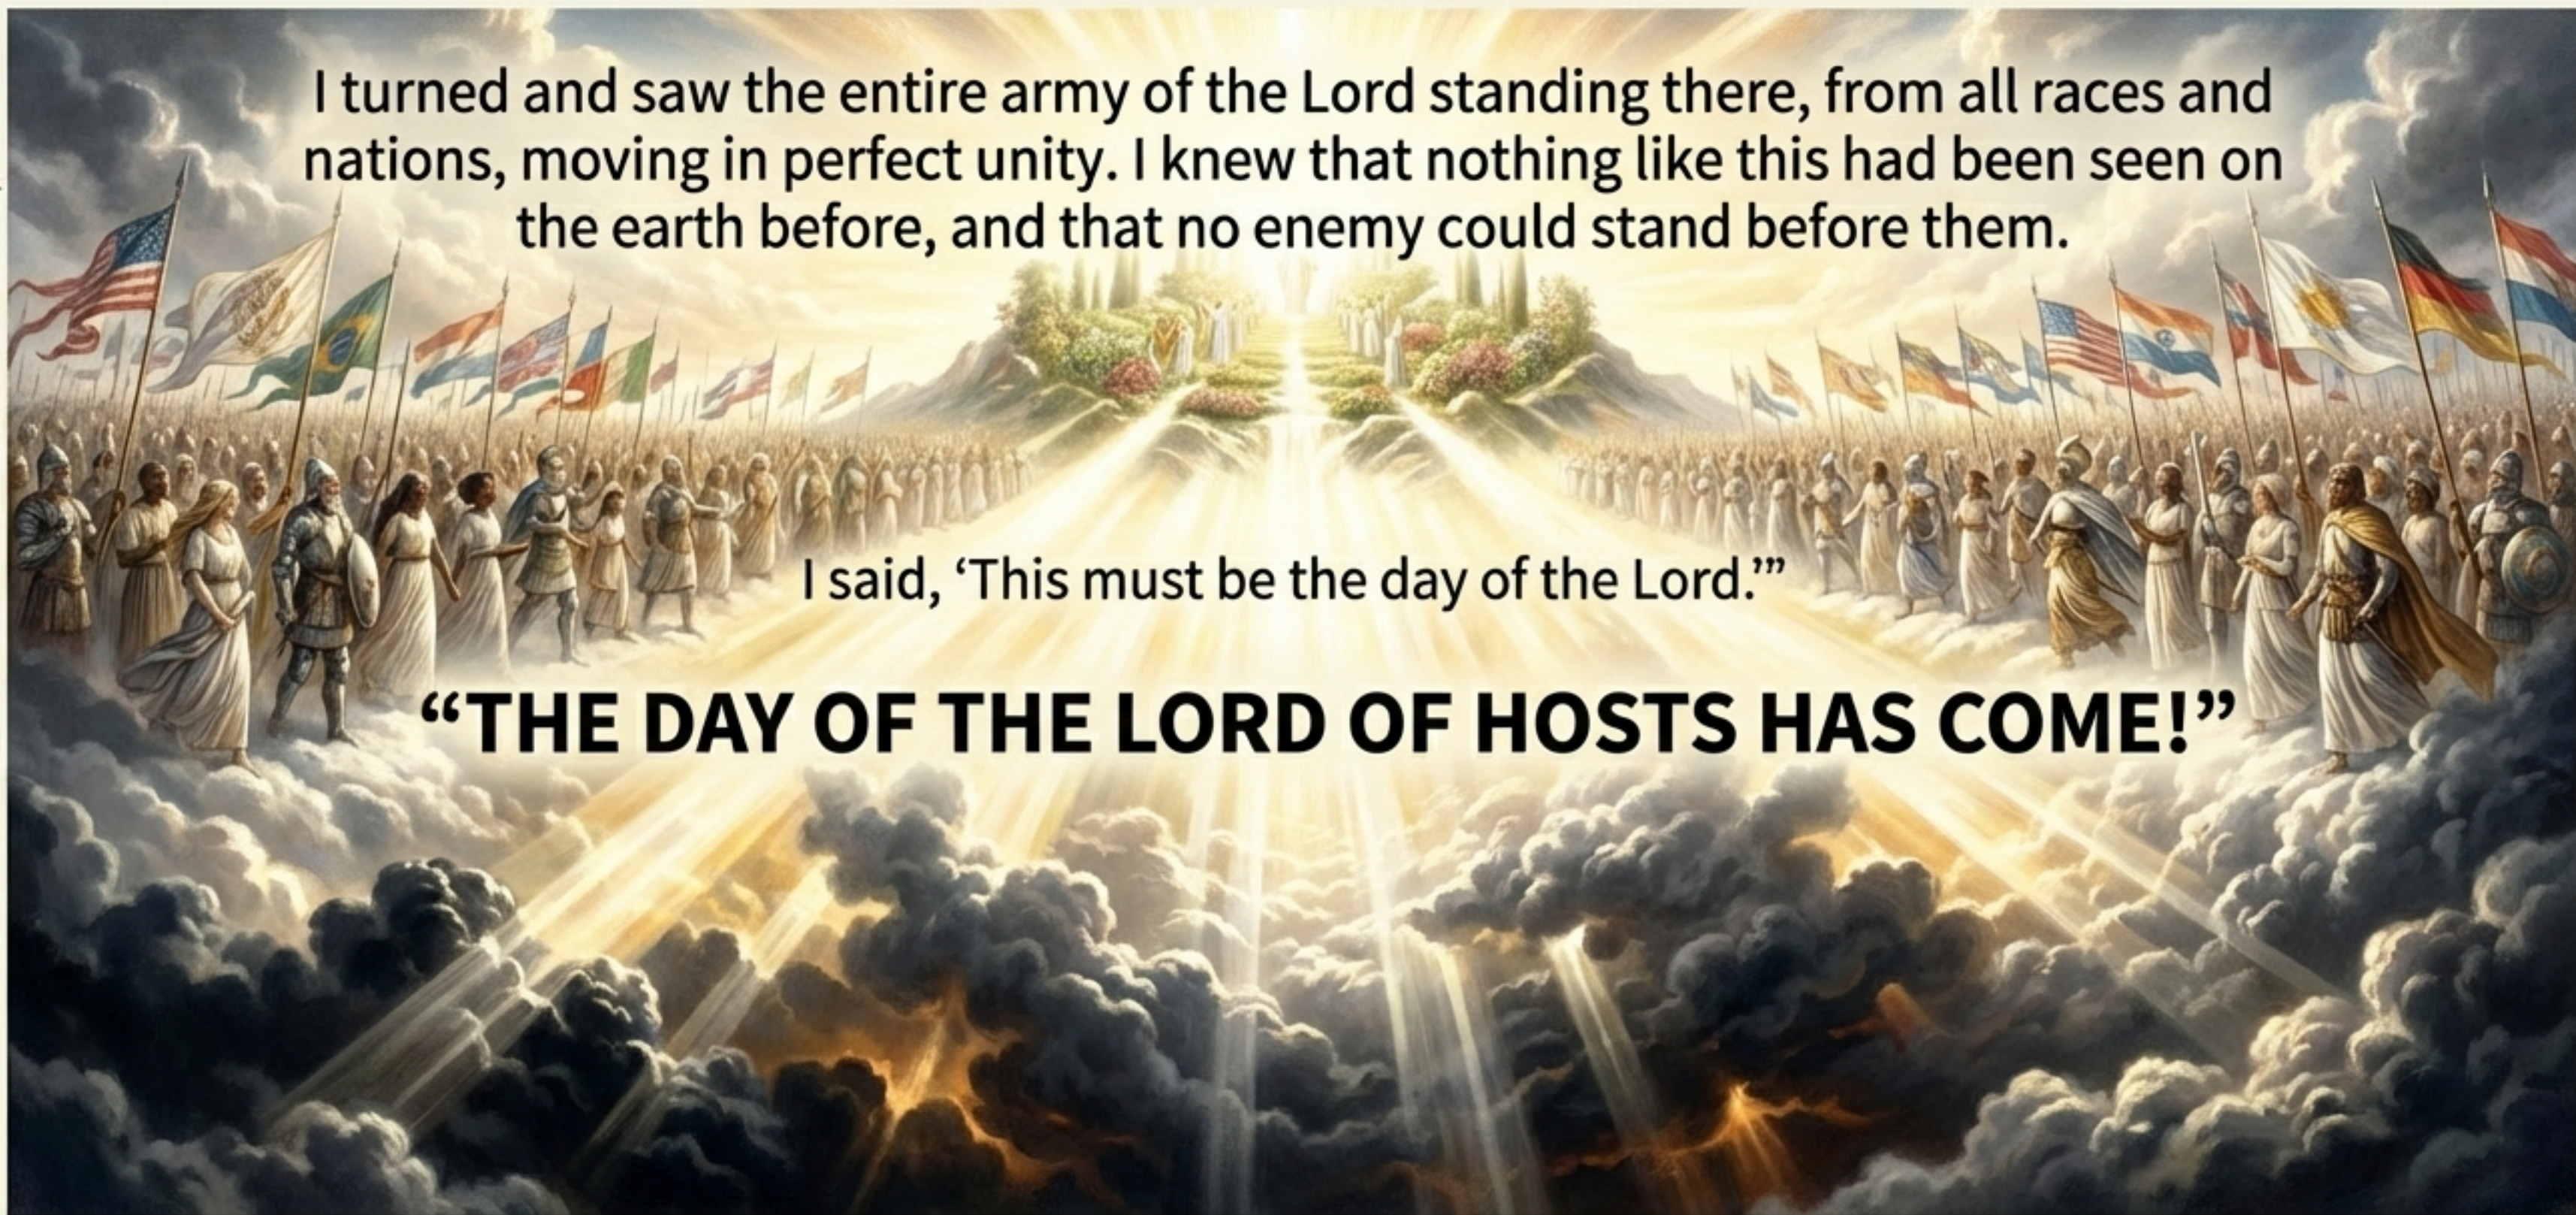

- Now it is time for us to march forth with the gospel of My kingdom.
- The eagles have been released and will go with us.
- Remember that I am your Sword and your Captain. It is now time for the Sword of the Lord to be unsheathed.

The Day of the Lord of Hosts Has Come

I turned and saw the entire army of the Lord standing there, from all races and nations, moving in perfect unity. I knew that nothing like this had been seen on the earth before, and that no enemy could stand before them.

I said, 'This must be the day of the Lord.'

“THE DAY OF THE LORD OF HOSTS HAS COME!”

A Spiritual Civil War

Like Lincoln, who fought to preserve a Union and emancipate the enslaved, the Lord is preparing leaders for a spiritual civil war.

The main issue will be slavery versus freedom. The goal is not to demonize our brethren, but to fight the evil that holds them in bondage.

The institutions that have kept people in spiritual slavery will be destroyed, but the church itself will emerge more powerful and unified than ever before. God's government is about to be demonstrated.
