SPIRITUAL "BOLT-CUTTER" PRAYER

Dear Heavenly Father:

I come to You in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. And I renounce and turn from all lies, all preconceptions, deceptions, and self-deceptions, and all unteachableness that I or my ancestors have believed or entertained.

I confess them as my sins and I ask to be cleansed from them by the Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. I renounce all vows of secrecy and silence about all ungodly activities.

I command every lying spirit, and every spirit of deception, self-deception, and unteachableness, and any other spirits associated with these sins to leave me now, harmlessly on my natural breathing, and not to return to me or to anyone whom I love, in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I come out of agreement with and renounce all shame, blame and guilt, all fear, all fear of failure, all fear of rejection, all fear of men, all fear of offending and ridicule, and all fear of not hearing God.

Lord Jesus, you are the Truth, and I surrender all these areas to Your Holy Spirit, Who is the Spirit of Truth, and whom You promised would lead me into all truth.

In Jesus' Name. Amen.

Seventh-day Adventism

Is It Another Gospel?

Many questions arise today concerning the Seventh-day Adventist Church. Some consider them to be fellow Evangelical Christians and others consider them to be so far out as to be a cult. What are the facts concerning Seventh-day Adventism?

Their Prophetess, Ellen G. White, interpreted the Bible for the group. After William Miller's failed prophecy of Christ's Return in 1843, and then 1844, Mrs. White invented the "Investigative Judgement" teaching to try and explain away this failure and also to gain control over Miller's followers.

Investigative Judgement teaching

This is a teaching born of a failed prophecy, namely, that instead of coming to earth visibly in 1844, Christ entered into the second apartment in heaven, there to begin a work of final atonement, which would blot out a believer's sins only after "Investigative Judgement" of the sinner.

This teaching is the opposite of the full atonement taught by the Christian Church, and also mocks at the words of our saviour from the Cross, "It is finished!" (John 19:30). Hebrews 10:12 also states, "But He, having offered ONE sacrifice for sins FOR ALL TIME, sat down at the right hand of the God." Christ paid fully for our sins, atoning for them fully. No Scripture teaches otherwise.

What Do Seventh Day Adventists Think of Christ?

Seventh-day Adventists claim to recognise the full deity of Jesus Christ, that He is truly God, and indeed He is. They are in full agreement with the historical Christian Church on this point. The tragedy is that they are still tainted with the Arian heresy that Jesus Christ is Michael. Seventh-day Adventists will be quick to inform you that Jesus is Michael the Archangel, but that He is called "Michael" in heaven. Could this be?

Michael is mentioned in three books of the Bible: Daniel, Jude and Revelation. Daniel 10:13 says, "... Michael, ONE of the chief princes..." notice please that Michael is not unique at all but merely one of several. Are we to assume then that there are many Christs, of which Jesus is one? That's ridiculous! Also, Seventh-day Adventists teach that Jude 9 refers to Christ, although Michael is plainly identified as an Archangel (or "chief of the Angels," a translation Seventh-day Adventists claim is not correct). The context shows that Michael did not dare rebuke Satan. Jesus, on the other hand, repeatedly rebuked Satan (Matthew 17:18; Mark 9:25, etc.). Further, Hebrews 1:6 commands all the angels to worship Jesus. God would hardly command angels to worship another angel. No Scripture says Jesus is Michael, and the contexts of the "Michael Scriptures" show plainly that Jesus Christ is not Michael.

Who Bears Our Sins?

The answer to the above question comes quickly to the Christian because the Scripture plainly teach that Christ "Bore our sins in His own body on the tree," (1 Peter 2:24.) 2 Corinthians 5:21 says that Christ was "made... to be sin for us." The Seventh-day Adventists go one step further, and say that Christ will in turn lay our sins on Satan! (The Great Controversy p 485). Their strange interpretation of Leviticus chapter 16, making Satan the Scapegoat, is unsupported from Scripture, and is further proof that they would add to Christ's finished work of Atonement.

The Saturday Sabbath

Ellen G. White made much of the Saturday Sabbath (sunset Friday to sunset Saturday), and believed that Christians should keep the Jewish Sabbath, even claiming that those not keeping the Sabbath would receive the Mark of the Beast! Hence this becomes a condition for salvation, again adding to the atoning work of Christ.

Let us say at the outset that no Christian objects to worship on Saturday, rather than Sunday, and those wishing to make Saturday their day of worship should feel free to do so without condemnation from anyone. What do the Scriptures show regarding the Sabbath?

Exodus 31:16-17 shows that the Sabbath was given as a token of the Covenant between God and Israel. Sabbath keeping has never been a command for the Gentiles (or non-Jews). When a dispute arose in the early church, Colossians 2:16-17 settled it by stating that no one was to judge a Christian "... in respect to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath day." Hebrews chapter 4 shows that the fulfilment of the Jewish Sabbath was not the keeping of the same day by Christians, but the entering of Christians into God's rest. The early Christians preached on the Jewish Sabbath because the Jews were gathered in the synagogue on that day (Acts 17:2-4), but the Christians always met together on the first day of the week - Sunday - the day of Christ's resurrection, (Acts 20:7).

Seventh-day Adventists have accused Christians with, "Shame on you, worshipping on Sun day, a day dedicated to the Sun god." The Christians' response might be, "So, you would rather have me worship on Saturn's day (Saturday) as you do, a day dedicated to the pagan deity, Saturn?" While it's true the names of the days of the week have pagan origins, these have little or no meaning now (apart from a few spiritist pagans in Scandinavia). All the Seventh-day Adventists we know use the calendar, which is of pagan origin. If we are true Christians, we are 24 hours a day, every day, and we are free to meet for worship on whatever day we choose. Christ came to set us free!

The Vegetarian Diet and Scriptures

Seventh-day Adventists stress a vegetarian diet, and we concede that they are indeed a healthy people and free to eat what they wish. White wrote, " ... if we subsist upon the flesh of dead animals, we shall partake of their nature," (Counsels on Diet & Foods, p 390). The Bible doesn't teach such nonsense. Jesus Himself ate fish and lamb. In fact the Jews were obliged to eat lamb to celebrate the Passover - one of the most significant Feasts of the Lord. It is called that because God commanded it, in detail.

Romans 14:1-3 puts the situation nicely: "Now accept the one who is weak in faith, but not for the purpose of passing judgement on his opinions. One man has faith that he may eat all things, but he who is weak eats vegetables only. Let not him who eats regard with contempt him who does not eat, and let not him who does not eat judge him who eats, for God has accepted him." Diet has no bearing on salvation for true Christians.

Striving to Keep the Law

The Seventh-day Adventists have divided up the Law God gave to Israel, although God Himself and the Jews never did. Seventh-day Adventists are still trying to keep the law through rigid conduct and adherence to the letter of the Law, and many other "laws" set up by their prophetess. What do the Scriptures show regarding the Law?

First of all, we are saved by grace, and cannot add to grace regarding our salvation, because Christ has done it all. Our good works are a result of salvation, not a condition of our salvation! Ephesians 2:8-9 says, "For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, that no one should boast." We recommend that readers turn to Galatians 3:19-29 and read the purpose of the Law as it applies to Christians.

Not only was the Law a "tutor" or teacher to lead the Jews to Christ, but Romans 13:10 states that "... love, therefore is the fulfilment of the Law." Romans chapter 10, based on Deuteronomy chapter 30, sums up the situation by saying, "For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness to everyone who believes." Jesus Christ established a New Covenant based on love. Hebrews 10:9 says, "... He takes away the first in order to establish the second." As believers in Christ, we are under the new Covenant (or Law), not the old one! Christ came to set us free!

Soul Sleep and the Denial of Hell

The Seventh-day Adventists, along with the Jehovah's Witnesses, Christadelphians and other misguided offshoots of Christianity, deny emphatically the existence of a literal hell. Jesus Christ, however, stated in Matthew 25:46 that "these will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life." The same Greek word for "eternal" is used in both cases. If one is to deny eternal punishment, then they must also deny eternal life.

The careful Bible student will look carefully at the three Greek words translated as "hell." They are not interchangeable. The final destination of all will be in eternity either in the presence of Jesus Christ, or eventually in the Lake of Fire (Gehenna). The penalty is eternal, but the punishment is not. Genesis 3:22 shows that had Adam eaten of the Tree of Life he would have lived eternally. He would not die. God prevented that occurring, so Adam died. 1 John 5:11-12 shows us that eternal life is only available to those who have Jesus Christ. It's called "Conditional Immortality." It's conditional on one's acceptance or rejection of Jesus Christ. There is no escape from the judgements of God, and the denial of His realities, revealed in His word, will not make them any less real when the time comes.

A Word on Ellen G. White

Jesus saw fit to repeat a warning in Matthew chapter 24, namely to look out for "false prophets." Seventh-day Adventism places so much trust in their propheticess that they need to be reminded of Jesus' words. If Ellen G. White is a true prophet, then there is nothing to be feared from an examination of her prophecies and writings. The Adventist Ministry Magazine of October 1981 contained many startling statements, including this from p.8. "We believe the revelation and inspiration of both the Bible and Ellen White's writings to be of equal quality. The superintendence of the Holy Spirit was just as carefully and thorough in one case as in the other." White herself wrote, "The atonement was not completed at the cross. This fact may startle you." (The Pillars, p28.)

Donald McAdams, president of the SDA Southwest Union College, sees the problem clearly when he wrote, "Do we use Ellen White in such a way as to give her control over the interpretation of Scripture in much the same way that the Catholic of Luther's day gave church tradition the right to interpret Scripture? The answer for most Adventists is yes, we do. ... If we grant Ellen White hermeneutical control over the Scriptures we will blunt, perhaps destroy, our witness. We will be seen as a cult that makes the Bible say what we want it to say." ("Ellen White's Role in Adventist History," p3, 5). That reflects strongly what Christians have been saying too.

We urge all honest-hearted Seventh-day Adventists to read the book, "The White Lie" by Walter Rae, and check out the documentation thoroughly. (Rae was a SDA minister for 33 years, and their top expert on the writings of Ellen G. White. Rae has challenged Adventists to find even 20% of her work as original and not plagiarised from others' writings.) Honest seekers can reach only one conclusion, namely that Ellen G. White does not live up to the high office afforded her by the Seventh Day Adventists.

In Conclusion

Readers now have the opportunity to form their own conclusions concerning the Seventh-day Adventists - Christian or Cult? Our opinion is that as long as they continue to misrepresent Jesus Christ as Michael; the continuing idolising of their founder, despite her false prophecies and teaching; and also their claim that there is salvation exclusively within their organisation, they fall into the definition of a cult. We rejoice, however, to see many Seventh-day Adventists being set free to be our full brothers and sisters in Christ.

PRAYER OF RENUNCIATION & RELEASE FOR THOSE PREVIOUSLY INVOLVED IN THE
SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH AND IT'S MANY SCHISMS

(Please pause briefly following each paragraph to allow the Holy Spirit to show any additional issues which He may wish to bring to your attention)

“Father God, creator of the heavens and the earth, I come to you in the name of Jesus Christ your Son. I choose to accept the sacrifice made by Jesus at Calvary for me to pay for my sins and iniquities. I come as a sinner seeking forgiveness and cleansing from all sins I have committed against you, and against all others made in your image. I honor my earthly father and mother, and all of my ancestors of flesh and blood, and of the spirit by adoption, but I utterly turn away from and renounce all their sins. I forgive all in my family line for the effects of their sins on me and my children. I confess and renounce all of my own sins. I renounce and rebuke Satan and every power of his affecting me and my family.

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I renounce every action and word of mine which gave others permission to deceive and control me. I renounce, forsake and break every covenant I have ever made with the Seventh-day Adventist Church and its many schisms. I renounce and forsake the false headship and authority of the President and the Governing Body of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and its many schisms, and their idolatrous usurping of their organization in the place of the Lord Jesus Christ.

In the name of Jesus Christ, I renounce and forsake the heretical writings and other teachings of William Miller, Joseph Bates, Ellen G. White, James White, Hiram Edson, ORL Crozier, George Storrs, JN Andrews, and all other writings published by the Seventh-day Adventist Church and it's many schisms. Those heretical writings and other teachings include the delusions of false End-time predictions, The Investigative Judgement, Soul Sleep, and the counterfeit Spirit of Prophecy. Lord Jesus, help me to honor you by removing all these books and publications from my home and life, and I cut off every bondage and deception I have been under because of those writings, in the name of Jesus Christ.

In the name of Jesus Christ I renounce and cut off my life the ungodly Covenants of Baptism and Membership of the Seventh-day Adventist Church and it's many schisms; I renounce these and all other ungodly soul ties, and I command the spirits that empower those soul ties to leave me now in the name of Jesus Christ. I gather those soul ties together and sever them through with the Sword of the Spirit of God, and humbly request the blood of Jesus Christ to seal those ends so they will never be able to reconnect.

Holy Spirit, given by my savior Jesus Christ as my wonderful teacher, counselor, and revealer of God's Word, (the Bible) I confess and apologize for accepting the false teaching and belief that you are not truly Deity as taught by early Adventist teachers. Please forgive me, and do not hold me guilty of the only unforgiveable sin, namely blaspheming the Holy Spirit, as stated by Jesus Christ and as shown in Matthew chapter 12 verses 31 and 32. You know all my problems, all those things which bind, torment, defile and harass me. I now confess that my body is the temple of the Holy Spirit, redeemed, cleansed and sanctified by the blood of Jesus Christ.

I ask you, Lord Jesus, to fill me now with your Holy Spirit, so that He will give me insight and understanding when I read and study your Word. I enthrone you, Lord Jesus in my heart, for you are my Lord and Savior, the source of eternal life. Thank you, Father God, for your mercy, your forgiveness and your love, in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.”

If you have difficulty going through this prayer, then please contact the publishers listed on page 2 (Jubilee has links with ministries which can assist in most countries world-wide); or contact a competent Christian leader near you to assist you.

Find Bible-believing Christians and spend time with them. Please explain to them you are coming out of a deceptive cult and need their encouragement and support at least until you are firmly on your feet. If some disappoint you (probably through not understanding your need) don't be put off, for there are caring Christians around who can and will help.

LETTER OF RESIGNATION

If you have ever become a member of the Seventh-day Adventist Church or been baptized by them, it is important that you send a letter of resignation. I suggest you send your letter to the national office of your country, and a copy to the world headquarters. You could also send a copy to your local church pastor and elders. They also need to know about the real Jesus Christ. You'll still need to be baptized into God's Kingdom, instead of a church.

Try to use your own words in your letter, but to assist you below is a sample you could use. If you wish to use our suggestion, please scroll over the text and copy onto a blank piece of paper.

You may care to mention you have discovered that Jesus Christ - Yeshua Ben Yahweh is Jehovah God; that you are now certain of your salvation; that the Seventh-day Adventist Church and their publications have misled you because they contained false prophecies and doctrines; and you can no longer accept the false and confusing teaching, but prefer to take my teaching from the Bible directly.

If you are or were a member of Seventh-day Adventist Church, and wish to formally resign, we suggest you scroll over the text and copy onto a blank piece of paper, complete the relevant sections and send one copy to your local, National & International H.Q. in USA.

RESIGNATION FROM: _____

The Seventh-day Adventist Church General Conference

Local Church.....

National HQ.....

International HQ, Silver Spring, Maryland USA

To the President, Sir:

I have been studying to prove the invitation by Ellen G. White, and the other founders, are true, where they said, “Seventh-Day Adventists hold that Ellen G. White performed the work of a true prophet during the 70 years of her public ministry...As Samuel...as Jeremiah...as John the Baptist, so we believe that Mrs.. White was a prophet to the church today”. (Review & Herald, 10, 4, 1928).

“This in-breathing by the Holy Spirit does impart to the prophetic utterances the quality of being authentic, authoritative, and infallible... It safeguards the prophet’s message from human influences that would distort or pervert it”. (Caottrell & Specht, Relation between D.A by EGW and Life of Christ by Hanna p.32);

“Ellen White had that gift (of the Holy Spirit) and she was canonical in so far as doctrinal interpretation and authority is concerned”. (Arthur Delafield, Gen. Conf., 1989)

“We believe the revelation and inspiration of both the Bible and Ellen White’s writings to be of equal quality. The superintendence of the Holy Spirit was just as carefully and thorough in one case as in the other”. The Adventist Ministry Magazine of October 1981 p.8

White herself wrote, “The atonement was not completed at the cross. This fact may startle you”. (The Pillars, p28.)

But Ellen G. White:

Confirmed the Prophetic date of Jesus’ return for 1843

Confirmed Jesus’ return for the Spring of 1844

Confirmed His return for October 22, 1844
Prophesied His return for the 7th month of 1845 and,
She also predicted His return by December 1850.

Like a good Berean, as mentioned in the Bible, I have discovered the following:

It is well known that Ellen G. White made many prophetic announcements, but according to Deuteronomy 13:1-8; 18:20-22; Jeremiah 23:40, and 2 Peter 1:20-21, Ellen G. White has failed the Biblical tests to be a Prophet from God. Consequently I am left with the clear and unequivocal conclusion the Seventh-day Adventist Church takes it's teaching from a proven false prophet.

So my questions to honest and thinking members of the Seventh-day Adventist Church are these:

The Bible is very clear that God cannot lie (1 Samuel 15:29 and Romans 3:4) and that He is unchanging and unchangeable (Malachi 3:6 & James 1:17). God is not the author of confusion (1 Corinthians 14:33). It is clear that the "spiritual enlightenment" claimed by the leaders of the Seventh-day Adventist Church cannot have come from God. The source of their confusion is either soulish, or inspired by Satan itself. It does show that anyone who chooses to get involved with The Seventh-day Adventist Church does so at the risk of deception. Spiritual truth is never based on someone's testimony, but on the objective Word of God, the Bible. It isn't what we think that really matters - it is what God says in the Bible.

I renounce my association with and all my obligations to The Seventh-day Adventist Church, without the least equivocation, mental reservation, or self-evasion of mind. For the Word of God says: "Do not be unequally yoked together with unbelievers. For what fellowship has righteousness with lawlessness? And what communion has light with darkness?" (2 Corinthians 6:14).

I have no animosity towards you personally, nor any other church member I trust you did not seek to deceive me deliberately, but the teachings of Ellen G. White and The Seventh-day Adventist Church had deceived us both.

I request that you formally acknowledge this resignation in writing as soon as possible.

Respectfully,

Regular Facebook and e-mail teaching and mentoring is also provided to many Christian leaders across Africa, Asia, Caribbean & Latin America, resulting in tens of thousands being equipped for service to the Kingdom of God.

About Jubilee Resources International

God's commission for Jubilee Resources International is based on Ezekiel 33:1-9, and Luke 4:18-21. According to the Bible, Jubilee years were times of restitution. Debts were cancelled, slaves set free, families reunited and lost or forfeited inheritances restored. Every year was prophetic of the ministry of Jesus Christ. The Jubilee was proclaimed on the basis of the work of the High Priest on the Day of Atonement - so Jesus Christ's liberating ministry is founded on His atoning work. Jesus began His public ministry by reading the passage from the prophet Isaiah (Luke 4:18-21). All the liberties of the Jubilee year are now available to us through the redemptive work of Jesus Christ at Calvary, and we all have the responsibility to preach this Gospel of Redemption and Restoration to full Relationship with Yahweh/Father God. When Yeshua/Jesus Christ returns, God's people will be totally free from all sin, sickness and disease, death and curse. The Biblical Jubilee will then be fully realized.

Unmasking the Adventist Paradox: Foundation of Delusions

Is the Seventh-Day Adventist church just a Christian denomination that is a bit legalistic about the Sabbath and dietary issues, but otherwise a "Christian" denomination? This book will help you understand the times in which it began in the 1800's, and how those affected the thinking of many people at that time. Out of the failed prophecy by William Miller about the Return of Jesus Christ, there arose a variety of new religious movements, many of whom borrowed each other's dogma.

The Seventh-day Adventist Church was one of those movements, picking up a mixture of delusions that are still largely held by their members. This is a group founded by a proven false teacher and false prophet, Ellen G. White, whose errors and visions have become dogma. There is always a danger when dogma becomes legalism, when they take the traditions of a man or woman and elevate them above the Word of God. Like the Roman Catholic Church, who the Seventh-day Adventists criticize a lot, both are in desperate need of Biblical correction if they are to be regarded as legitimate branches of Christianity. The Paradox is explained in Matthew 7:15-20 and James 3:11-12. Book, E-book, MP4
